The Secondary Education program aligns with the College of Education Core Standards of Teacher Education and the Conceptual Framework. In addition, the program graduates teachers who exemplify the following guiding principles. The Secondary Educator:

1. Is a content area expert able to represent subject matter in multiple ways to ensure depth of student understanding.
2. Ensures curriculum alignment with state and national student achievement standards.
3. Uses all appropriate tools and techniques of teaching to guide and assess student learning.
4. Provides consistent opportunities for all students to learn and adapts instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners.
5. Fosters family and community relationships that promote student learning.
